Entrance Ticket

Esperanza Rising: Chapter 8 (Las Almendras)

You read Chapter 8 for homework last night. Please answer the following questions about the chapter. Write in complete sentences.

1. What is the surprise that Alfonso and Miguel have for Esperanza and Mama?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. What does Esperanza learn to do by herself for the first time in this chapter?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3. What does Isabel want to bring home from the fiesta?
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________